1. Through ev - 'ry age, e - ter - nal God,
 2. Long hadst Thou reigned ere time be - gan,
 3. But man, weak man, is born to die,
 4. A thou - sand of our years a - mount
 5. Death, like an o - ver - flow - ing stream,

Thou art our rest, our safe a - bode;
 Or dust was fash - ioned in - to man;
Made up of guilt and van - i - ty;
 Scarce to a day in Thine ac - count;
 Sweeps us a - way; our life's a dream,

<sup>2</sup>High was Thy throne ere heav'n was made,
 And long Thy king - dom shall en - dure
Thy dread - ful sen - tence, LORD, was just,
 Like yes - ter - day's de - part - ed light,
<sup>6</sup>An emp - ty tale, a morn - ing flow'r,

Or earth Thy hum - ble foot - stool laid.
 When earth and time shall be no more.
"Re - turn, ye sin - ners, to your dust."
 Or the last watch of end - ing night.
 Cut down and with - ered in an hour.
